

Nordic (De)Briefing on WCC Conference on World Mission and Evangelism: Impressions and Preliminary Analyses of the Arusha Conference

2018-03-20 Centre for Theology and Religious Studies, Helgonavägen 3, Lund University
LUX building B237

13:15	Opening of the conference day
13:30	Introduction to the conference theme and contents Mika Vähäkangas, Lund University
14:00	Together towards Life and Arusha conference Eva Christina Nilsson, Swedish Mission Council
14:45	Arusha Conference – a theological analysis Marion Grau, MF Norwegian School of Theology
15:30	Coffee break
16:00	Ecumenical Implications of the Conference Mari-Anna Auvinen, Finnish Ecumenical Council
16:45	Interreligious Dimensions of the Conference Arngeir Langås, Danmission
17:30	How African was the Arusha Conference? Roar Fotland, MF Norwegian School of Theology
18:15	Conclusion of the conference (moderator: Jonas A. Jørgensen, Danish Mission Council)
19:00	Dinner (personalmatsalen C212)

Note: the conference is preceded by NIME annual general meeting at 11:30 am in B429.

NIME doctoral school on mission studies, ecumenics and related disciplines

9:15 am – 13:00 in B429 followed by lunch.

To present a paper in the doctoral school, contact mika.vahakangas@ctr.lu.se to book you the time and send the paper to him at latest 2018-03-14.

Registrations for the NIME AGM, the conference and the doctoral school

E-mail mika.vahakangas@ctr.lu.se . Mention which of the three events you are going to attend.

Dinner and lunch after the doctoral school will be provided only to registered participants. There is no conference fee.

This conference is funded by Lund Mission Society and Kungliga Humanistiska Vetenskapssamfundet i Lund.