

What Is Left of the Enlightenment?

Programme

Thursday, 5 October

- 17.15 Registration in the lobby of the LUX-building, Helgonavägen 3
- 18.00 Welcome (B336)
Victoria Höög, Associate Professor Intellectual History, Lund University
Barbara Törnquist-Plewa Professor East and Central European Studies, Lund University
Jayne Svenungsson, Professor of Systematic Theology, Lund University
- 18.15 Richard Wolin: In Praise of Philosophie: On the Actuality of Radical Enlightenment
- 19.45 Reception LUX refectory (C212)

Friday 6 October

- 09.30 Joanna Stalnaker: How Does Enlightenment End? (B336)
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.30 Jonathan Israel: "All poststructuralist and postcolonialist criticism of the moderate mainstream Enlightenment is justified; none of the criticism of the Radical Enlightenment is at all justified; if you are not talking "Radical Enlightenment" then the basic question is entirely senseless."
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Brian Klug: Beyond Nathan the Wise: Dealing with Difference in the Twenty-First Century (B336)
- 15.30 Coffee
- 16.00 Roundtable with all speakers (B336)

Chaired by Göran Rosenberg, writer and journalist

17.30

Close