‘The Jewish Labor Bund: Jewish Counterculture in the Interwar Period.’

Seminar with Prof. Jack Jacobs.

December 10, 15.00-17.00 in Absalon 129b

Prof. Jack Jacobs is one of the world’s leading scholars of the Jewish Labor Bund, the socialist Jewish workers union founded in 1897 in Vilnius, and a dominant Jewish political and cultural movement in interwar Poland.

He is the author of several books including The Frankfurt School, Jewish Lives, and Antisemitism. New York: Cambridge University Press, 2015 and Bundist Counterculture in Interwar Poland. Syracuse University Press, in cooperation with the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, 2009.

All are welcome!
